

In Canada, ‘Transformation’ is a Half-Empty Library

Recent US political leaders have declared their intention to “fundamentally transform” the nation. Our neighbor to the north is fast becoming a test case demonstrating where the US is going in this move to “transformation.”

In one disturbing example, students in an Ontario public school returned this year to find the shelves in their library nearly half empty. This was because of “a new equity-based book-weeding process.” Administrators told students that they had been instructed to remove all books published prior to 2008.

When concerned citizens looked into the situation, they were given the usual run-around and gobbledygook response. The answer was that See Library p. 4

Pope All-In on Climate Change

In early October, Pope Francis released a new document “Laudate Deum,” specifically targeting the subject of climate change. The Pope began this campaign in 2015 with the encyclical “Laudato Si” (Praise Be to you). In it he stressed the interconnectedness of humanity and the world and admonished the nations to pay attention to the growing threat of global warming and environmental degradation.

Apparently, they did not heed his warning to his satisfaction, so now he is coming down heavy. He claims that we have reached the point where we are “unable to halt the enormous damage we have caused,” and that the planet is “fast reaching a point of no return.” Corrective action must be “drastic, intense and count on the commitment of all.”

Culprits are the wealthy elites indicted for their selfishness and greed, evidenced by their “conspicuous consumption” producing the bulk of the environmental pollution. Victims are the little people in the poorer nations who do not have the industrial advances that produce the pollutants.

Evidence for the urgency, he claims, is “extreme weather phenomenon, frequent periods of unusual heat, drought, and other cries of protest from the earth.” These he connects directly to human activity and pollution.

The pope’s earlier document carried considerable weight at the Paris Climate Agreement eight years ago. Now he has specifically directed his latest encyclical to the UN delegates who will be attending the 2023 United Nations Climate Change Conference (COP28) this November. In his encyclical he castigates these world leaders for their low implementation of his previous directive.

Francis writes: “With the passage of time, I have realized our responses have not been adequate, while the world in which we live is collapsing and may be nearing the breaking point.”

So how should we as believers think about this picture? First of all, the climate is always changing. Our thin slice of weather history in the last few hundred years does not include many other drastic gyrations that geologic history only hints at.

Credible scientists point out that there are several other known factors involved in the changing climate. The sun itself has certain cycles that directly affect our weather. Volcanic activity and cloud patterns have also been mentioned. Most admit that it is so complex that little is

Money—Primary Tool of Antichrist

In the march to the antichrist’s one-world government, there are lots of “groups” forming. One is called the Group of 20 (G20). Finance ministers from about 20 countries meet periodically. In their September meeting, the discussion was about a new kind of money.

Actually, it was just a new name for a fairly old type of money that we use every day: digital money. That’s the kind you have stored on your debit card. When you go to an ATM you are changing the digital money back to paper money.

Before that, common money was usually precious metal, gold or silver. Before that was barter. A live chicken might get you a bag of carrots.

Along the way there were other variations such as tobacco. The early American colonies used it as money for a few decades. It was portable, divisible into smaller units, and had “intrinsic value” because of its narcotic effect.

But just a few decades ago, computers were introduced, and money became credits in a digital ledger. The ATM gives you access to those credits and converts them into paper dollars. And the digital ledger balance is reduced by the amount on the paper bills that you draw from the ATM.

Since the introduction of digital money, there has been a rapid gravitation away from the older coins and paper. That change has been so effective that over 80% of all the transactions done in the modern world are done in digits.

So, it follows that the powers that are dragging us toward a one-world system see a golden opportunity related to money. You know that if everyone had to use the

An Easy Witnessing Opportunity!

This time of year, folks are open to hear about Jesus. After all, people say it's His birthday, right?

Regardless of how you feel about Christmas (some Christians don't celebrate it) it's just too good a witnessing opportunity to miss! Put on a big smile and hand a Chick tract like Greatest Story Ever Told or Humbug or The Present to a store clerk. Tell them "enjoy your family this holiday" and watch them say "Thank you!"

the Ministry of Education had instituted an “equitable curation cycle.” Curation cycles are part of normal library administration since the volume of books will quickly overwhelm the storage space.

In the past, that was based primarily on popularity of the volume but now we have another criteria in the word “equitable.” We have come to understand that this word is part of the neo-Marxist religion’s new vocabulary.

They are hoping that we will confuse this with our good, old word “equality.” But there is a world of difference. Americans have always understood that the word equality meant that everyone had an “equal opportunity” to succeed in life. That success was only possible when the person put out the effort to take advantage of that opportunity.

Marxism now has adopted a slightly different word to mean what they call “equality of outcome.” Their philosophy of equality of outcome promises that everybody should have equal success guaranteed by a socialist government, with or without effort. This is part of their campaign to create chaos so that they can gain political control.

By this “cancelling” of history prior to 2008, they are attempting to erase the record of Marxism’s devastating effect on other countries that have adopted it. By this and other “cancel culture” mechanisms, they hope to create enough ignorance and chaos so that everyone will vote them into power, thus accomplishing the desired “transformation.”

Of course, this is only one small chapter in the Canadian leadership’s playbook.

Canada is one of the few nations with no “criminal restrictions” on abortion. And over three percent of all deaths in Canada are from “assisted” death. Since the euthanasia program called MAID (Medical Assistance In Dying) was instituted, more than 31,000 have been killed by the program.

We should note that Satan is interested in killing as many people as possible. Neo-Marxists are also interested in reducing the population, particularly those who oppose their globalist agenda.

During COVID-19, Canada was eager to jail pastors who wished to continue church services, and close bank accounts of those who marched in opposition to government lockdowns.

As in America, homosexual perversion has been granted protection in the anti-discrimination laws. Drag queens prance in libraries and scantily dressed sadomasochists pridefully strut in street parades before gawking children.

The religion of Marxism shows up in many subtle ways. It purports to be godless, but elevates the state as all powerful, all wise and all supplying. The devastating results of that lie is most visible in Cuba, Venezuela, and Argentina, as well as China, Russia, and “secular” Europe.

The books taken out of the Ontario library would have shown conclusively that no government can long survive without a moral people, as America’s founding fathers preached. And they would show that the only moral code that works is the one detailed in the Bible.

But to be truly moral, people must first come in submission to their Creator, accept His forgiveness for their sin, and allow the Holy Spirit to use the Bible to direct their lives.

And how will they know this? Not without a preacher (Romans 10:14-17). Thanks to modern printing, a paper “preacher” can be given to someone for mere pennies—with eternal consequences both now and for eternity. Chick tracts have a message that will save the culture by saving the people first. ■

So, How Should We Think About the Pride Assault?’

How did we manage to get where families freely take their children downtown to watch parades of sexual perversion? Or to libraries to watch scantily dressed men prance around in women’s clothes and makeup?

Do we think that God is not watching what we are doing to our children?

Jesus spoke in Matt. 12:43-45 about the fate of a man who had been freed from a demon but did not fill the vacancy with the Spirit of God and ultimately receives seven worse demons than originally.

This risk also applies to societies. When we took the Bible out of our schools it left a vacancy that has been filled by the most hideous of demons.

Families also set themselves up to harvest bad fruit when they substituted television for family Bible study. These two trends have unleashed one of the most brutal demons, the one behind transgenderism.

The Christian Post reports that, “...the number of young people identifying as transgender has doubled in just the last few years.” What was originally a very rare case of what science calls “gender dysphoria,” the number of minors in America receiving that diagnosis tripled from 2017 to 2021. More than forty-two thousand received the diagnosis in 2021 alone.

Before social media, parents were careful to guard the environment around their children because they understood the “power of suggestion.” Any curious child introduced to a highly emotionalized subject will immediately scramble to know more about it. Those introductions were once kept to a minimum until they reached maturity enough to understand the context.

Now we have See Pride p. 7

actually known about the process.

From a biblical point of view, there is strong evidence from the stories in the Old Testament that weather patterns can be directly affected by the obedience of the people who are benefiting from that weather. Jesus said that God sends the rain on the just and the unjust but in God’s dealing with Israel there seemed to be a limit to His patience. (See Lev. 26 and Deut. 11).

We are also watching the rising fear and chaos that the Bible predicted. The globalists plan to use that to make the people accept the authoritarian Antichrist. They have been highly successful in spreading Marxist socialism by stirring up racism or by pitting the “privileged” against the “discriminated against.” Satan’s overall goal behind all of this is to destroy the prosperity that has enabled the spread of the gospel to the far reaches of the planet.

These events graphically illustrate that the “great whore” of Revelation 17 and 18 that sits on the seven hills of Rome, is continuing to plot according to biblical prophecy. We are watching the development of the political beast that the whore rides upon and that the entire world is going to “wonder” after.

Chick Publications has published a number of books and tracts showing how the Bible describes Roman Catholicism as a counterfeit church and a major player in the end time. Visit our website at www.chick.com to view the various items that we have published on these subjects. ■ what is called “social contagion” that is spreading perverse suggestions that feed the youthful curiosity. And that contagion is greatly lubricated by the convenient interaction of social media.

“On the popular social media platform TikTok, #trans has logged 50.2 billion views as of this writing, having nearly doubled within the last year,” reports the Christian Post.

And Satan has engineered the entertainment industry to idolize the most physically attractive, feeding the “dysphoria.” These statistics indicate that our young ladies are the most vulnerable to this satanic attack. US transgender clinics report that about two-thirds of their patients are female.

same money, their world control would be greatly advanced.

In their planning, coins and paper need to go. Actually, seeing how far they have gone in eliminating them already, they haven’t far to go.

But the issue now is more control. Coins and bills, and even credit cards issued by hundreds of banks, make control impossible. The next step in control involves the central banks in the individual countries. Many countries now have these central banks modeled on the American Federal Reserve bank and the European Central Bank. And the problem is that each bank issues its own currency such as the dollar, the yen, and the euro.

As these different central banks push to eliminate coin and paper bill money in favor of digital money, their ability and temptation to increase control grows. Some countries are farther down this road than others. China has merged personal ID with control of digital money. The result has been what is called social credits.

By watching how people spend their money through the digital system, the government can gauge their loyalty and

An astounding second chapter to this story is that some of the supposedly caring, healing, professionals in the medical field are now cooperating and destroying the lives of these young women. They are quick to prescribe puberty blockers that cause sterilization, and permanently disfiguring healthy young bodies with grotesque surgeries.

Fortunately, some victims of this diabolical lie are loudly voicing their regret. They are pointing to the 20-times-normal suicide rate of transitioned people and to the 44,000 members in r/detrans on Reddit.

Women like Chloe Cole and others are bravely making the news circuits eloquently describing the horrors of issue positive or negative social credits on their ID. If they have too many negative credits their card will not clear when they go to buy an airline ticket or pay tuition to get into their preferred college.

Places like China are lab cases for the planned single global digital money system that will ultimately give the Antichrist the kind of control over buying and selling described in Revelation chapter 13.

The United Nations already has a framework for this in the International Monetary Fund (IMF) and the World Bank. One secretive organization is currently experimenting with what they call the Worldcoin, a combination of a government issued identification and the ability to track purchases through a Central Bank Digital Currency (ID/CBDC) system.

Persecution of Christians is rising worldwide. Resistance to the gospel is taking on a global scope. The spirit of Antichrist has made great strides even in America. Jesus warned that the night was coming when we could not work.

Soul winners, we need to do what we can while we can. ■

Who Folded the Laundry?

By Michael Daniels

Imagine you live alone, in a house with a 12-foot wall, and the most secure surveillance system in the world. One night, you forget to unload the dryer before going to bed. The next morning, you open the dryer, and find your clothes neatly folded and stacked. Who do you suppose folded your laundry?

You check the alarm system, camera footage, and look for any evidence that a laundry-vigilante snuck in and folded your laundry. After hours of footage checked, no one touched the dryer. No one is there besides you! So, who folded your laundry?

What if I told you of a similar scenario where some say, “laundry can fold itself?” In classrooms today, it is taught that if it rains on the rocks long enough, life can create itself*. The famous Miller-Urey Experiment doesn’t even come close to producing life,  and yet they claim that “the laundry can fold itself” by saying: “[Life] first evolved in the form of an RNA self-replicator.”

Life is so much more complex than a stack of laundry, and yet they argue it created itself! They use poor experiments to support their assertions, then ask you to believe something that doesn’t make sense! When thinking about the laundry, did it occur to you that it folded itself? Or did you wonder WHO did it –not WHAT did it? I’m sure scientists would start hunting for the laundry-vigilante too!

Not finding evidence that someone broke in doesn’t give you license to assume that the clothes folded themselves.

The fact is the presence of a folded stack of laundry IS EVIDENCE that SOMEONE folded it. Obviously, the laundry-vigilante did his dastardly deed undetected and may return at any time. Scary thought.

Life makes life –wet rocks don’t. Someone from outside made us. Someone outside the universe. He created us for a purpose and made that purpose known. What is that purpose? That we should love Him, follow Him, and share the truth of sin and His sacrifice to pay for our sins.

Scientists pretend to have better answers, but then they want you to believe silly things like “dryers can fold laundry” and “wet rocks can create life”. God’s book, the Bible, is the only place to find real purpose and true answers.

Jesus came in from the outside (of the universe) to set us in order until He returns to judge the world. We have been commissioned to urgently reach the world for Him, knowing that Jesus may return at any time. Scary thought (for those who have not received Him).

We must confidently proclaim the answer to the world. This deceived generation needs to hear the truth from God, who from outside space and time saw these precious confused souls and asked us to give them the answer.

For those in your neighborhood trapped in evolutionism’s fantasy world, Chick Publications has answers—from a simple tract, “Big Daddy,” to a comic, “Primal Man,” to whole books that conclusively prove that evolution is built on lies. ■

In the Great Commission, Jesus said to go and preach the truth. We are at the point where you risk arrest if you do. But we have no choice if there is any chance of saving America to stand against the Devil's evils in the rest of the world.

50 years ago Jack Chick saw this evil coming and began to write about it. Chick Publications has tracts that illustrate the hard-hitting stories of God's judgement against this ultimate evil. ■

Missionaries contact us every week asking for Chick tracts to be the “attention-getter” for their evangelism. We never know where the requests will come from, and are so grateful to those who give so that we can keep saying “yes.”

Canada

It has been just a few short months since we sent 500,000 Chick tracts to a group determined to put a tract in every home in the Canadian provinces of Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island. As Pastor Brandon Lake shared his vision, he wrote “churches are closing and a generation of youth is being raised who know not God. . . . It is our desire to evangelize every home, and seek the Lord through fasting and prayer where further efforts to establish sound Bible believing churches can be made.”

Nine churches came together to get this done. At the time of this writing, they had already mailed tracts to 250,000 homes ... it’s halfway done!

Pastor Lake passed along this testimony from Bridgewater: “A friend of a family friend received his in the mail the other day - he read it five times! The Lord spoke to his heart and he felt his need to get saved. He called our friend and talked to her, and said he needed to get saved right away, and he prayed and asked the Lord to save him. He immediately got his Bible out and started reading Romans, and wants to go to Church. He carries his tract in his pocket because he says it means the world to him! He keeps reading it over and over.”

MALAWI

David Robinson, out of Baptist Bible Missions, asked for 100,000 Chick tracts in Chichewa for his work in Mzuzu, Malawi, East Africa. He tells us “the Africans LOVE them.” Thank you for making it possible! We were able to include it in a container being sent by another ministry, for a big savings in shipping.

This Malawi child has a treasure, and is intently reading it. Picture sent by Dave Darling of Campaigns for Christ.

Dominican Republic

Missionary Tom Franklin reports: “We have already gone through four boxes on visitation. We have had many visitors due to the visitation time with the tracts and at least four (probably more) have received Christ and become members of the church due to these efforts.”

Thank you for helping this veteran missionary!

South Africa

Missionary Mike Fluech just completed a missions conference in Potchefstroom, South Africa. His church members were anxious to do evangelism. He wrote:

“We have one lady who took it upon herself to get gospel tracts into nearly every department store in every mall in town. While she was at it, she went to the municipal building and gave tracts to as many as would receive them. Being wise as a serpent, she managed to get all the way to the mayor’s office, where she was able to leave tracts with all the staff. . . One of the tracts she gave out found its way into the hands of a shy young man named José, a Portuguese man who was raised as a Catholic. After reading the Chick tract, José was compelled to overcome his timidity and came to church all by himself. If memory serves, he’s been with us now for five weeks in a row. I’m so glad that such fruit can abound to both her account – and yours.”

Thank you for providing tracts for this ministry!

HONDURAS

Veteran missionary Scott Sumner, serving Honduras for 32 years, has been allowed to preach the Gospel in military bases and police academies all over the country. They also reach thousands of immigrants coming through on their way to the U.S., including Chinese, Haitian, Arabs and Venezuelans. Thanks to your faithfulness, we were able to meet his need of 50,000 Chick tracts for this amazing outreach.

TANZANIA

A special printing of Maasai “One Way” is on the way to Tanzania, where they will be part of an outreach to Maasailand, the tribal land of the over 2 million Maasai people.

UKRAINE

Because of your faithfulness, when Brian Green of Seeds for the Cities asked for an emergency shipment of Ukrainian and Romanian tracts for the people in this nation under siege, we were able to respond. Six thousand tracts in those two languages were quickly sent. The tragedy in Ukraine just never seems to stop.

ENGLAND

It's hard to believe that England, the source of the world-changing King James Bible, is now such a desperate mission field that countries that used to receive British missionaries are now sending missionaries back to reach this nation that has lost its way. Cross Mission, a Korean group, has people on the streets of major cities here making Jesus known again. Since the last report, we have sent another 40,000 tracts to this country, where you can be arrested for preaching on the streets.

Filipino kids not only read the tracts, but will take them home to their families!

Philippines

The cry for Chick tracts from the Philippines has not slowed. The last container load with 1,300,000 Chick tracts arrived in Manila and the boxes shipped by ferry and truck to many

The missionaries overseeing this have requested even more tracts, so at the time of this writing, we have another shipment of 310,000 tracts ready for pickup to go by sea. And more requests keep coming in! Thank you for the amazing difference you are making in this nation of thousands of islands.

ZAMBIA

80,000 Chick tracts in Bemba and English are on the way to Missionary Mike Dobbins in the inner-Africa nation of Zambia. Many will remember this as the nation where pioneer David Livingstone introduced Christianity along the Zambezi River. Ministering in the city of Chingola, Dobbins is not far from the Congo border. The Chick tracts are well-received here. Thank you for making it possible.

Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

The motto of the Catholic system is “Always the Same.” The Whore of Babylon never changes its goals, that’s for sure. If there is a way she can take over the minds and hearts (and souls) of men, she will.

So there was nothing different about this present, super-liberal, Jesuit pope, except for his tactic: using the global climate panic to make another grab at global control.

But this time people are becoming wise to Rome’s tactics. The drive for world government is beginning to cause some blowback. God is beginning to expose the truth that He is in charge of the weather, not man.

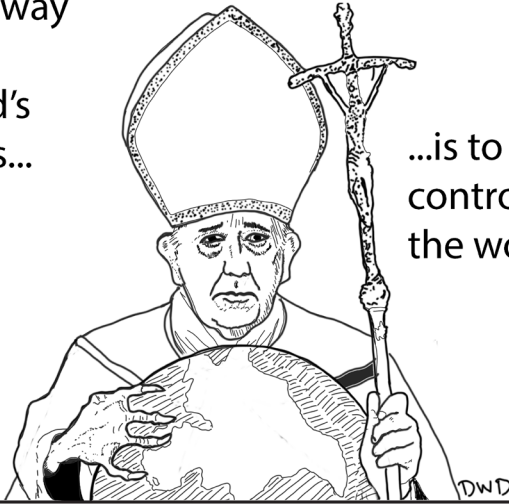

We hope our many tracts on Catholicism and with a Catholic theme have helped, as well as our Alberto Series and the “Jesuits” Crusader comic. The more we realize each pope is just a dress-rehearsal for the beast of Revelation, the more we will recognize that his goal is world control.

If you have Catholic friends, I urge you to pray and read through our tracts, for the Lord to bring you to one that will reach your friend. It will be a release from a form of pagan bondage to freedom in Christ.

In Christ Jesus, and for His service,
