

EVANGELISM IS BIGGER THAN YOU THINK

As surveys and studies continue to trumpet the bad news of ineffective churches, and Satan’s lying fingers clutch more tightly the heart of our culture, evangelism has become the new buzzword. But most Christians, including pastors, are out of practice. One example is a recent article in Outreach Magazine by Denny Johnson, pastor of a church in Minnesota.

Johnson confesses that the mission of his church had gotten foggy, but he knew that Christ kept His mission very simple, to “...seek and to save that which was lost” (Luke 19:10). Johnson claims that the first thing that God did in answer to his desperate prayer for help, was to send someone to his church

See Evangelism p. 2

It is good to develop a relationship with an unbeliever and sometimes they will take a Bible as a gift. But an engaging gospel tract adds a significant plus to the witnessing mix.

IS UK PLANNING TO BLOCK PRAYER FOR GENDER CONFUSED?

Various Christian organizations and churches in the United Kingdom are registering serious objections to a proposed law they believe could affect their freedom to pray for gender confused youth. Twenty US states have already adopted similar laws, forbidding professional counseling for so called “conversion therapy” to help a child who is struggling with “gender identity.”

The laws are based on the lie that gender is determined by what you feel, rather than on the obvious physical features at birth. The claim is that those feelings are set at birth and it is “pseudoscience” to try to change them.

Although proponents deny it, critics point out that the law is so vague that it could even criminalize parents who try to help their children during gender confusion.

who had spent a number of years on the mission field. There he had developed considerable skill in one-to-one dialogue about the claims of Christ.

They were then challenged in a seminar on evangelism to take a closer look at their own personal activity in soul winning. It was explained that if the pastor himself is not focused on personally leading individuals to a commitment to Jesus, it was unlikely that the congregation would see it as important.

The two of them began a conscious effort to pray with people in public and guide the conversations. Once they were comfortable with the new strategy they began to train other church leaders. Of course, the Holy Spirit did his work and testimonies began to come which they shared in a handout to the congregation periodically.

What they learned and were able to implement was definitely an improvement. However, the old-time evangelists who oversaw the national revivals and great awakenings would have had an additional suggestion. Saturating the community with sound gospel literature was often what they used to stir up a desire for revival.

Just as personal referrals are powerful marketing tools, personal evangelism is also highly effective. However, it does not satisfy the full scope of the Great Commission. Mark 16:15 says, "Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature." We are obliged by this verse to make sure that everyone within our ability will at least hear the good news that their sins can be forgiven.

Obviously, it is impossible through relationship evangelism to fully obey this Commission. Something else is necessary to reach the broader populace. In the past, tent meetings and stadium crusades have been very effective. But today, inexpensive paper and high speed printing can produce copies of the gospel by the millions.

But, gospel tracts sitting in a publisher's warehouse or even in the storage room of a church cannot "preach" the gospel until they are distributed to the unbelievers. Again, the harvest is ripe and the harvest tools are ready—and with gospel tracts, you can be ready, too!

WHOSE ABOMINATION? By David W. Daniels

In the Bible, an abomination, or "abomination to God," is something God hates. This should not be confused with an "abomination unto you," meaning Israel, which is something God only forbade the Hebrews (See Leviticus 11).

God said in Leviticus 18:22, "Thou shalt not lie with mankind, as with womankind: it is abomination." He said it again in Leviticus 20:13. This was a direct insult to God Himself and His plan for man's thriving: a tender, loving relationship between a man and a woman legitimized before God and society by the public vows of marriage.

This abomination also thwarts God's instructions to be fruitful and multiply.

Today, America's birth rate is 1.6 children per couple, far below the replenishment rate of 2.1 children.

In Ezekiel 16:49-50, God also told of this same abomination in reference to what wealthy, full and idle Sodom did. First, they paid no attention to their poor and needy. Then "they were haughty, and committed abomination" before God, depravity so great that God said, "therefore I took them away as I saw good."

The homosexual community latched onto verse 49, claiming it was "inhospitality" that was Sodom's great sin. But no, that just led to their haughtiness and "abomination," a reference to the story

IS YOUR CHURCH... TRAPPED?

Many churches are trapped within the church walls.

But Jesus said, “Go...”

Some Chick tract users are getting up in years, and don't get out as much as before, but they want to use their funds to promote evangelism. If that's you, we have an idea that may help:

Many churches have young people who want to be a witness, but don't know how. They may want to use tracts, but have no money to buy them. Be their benefactor! Give them a sample pack, ask them to choose their favorites, and then be the “angel” who keeps them supplied! You will share in their reward.

Remember: Chick tracts get read!

It is intriguing that homosexual activists have chosen the very word, “conversion” for what to ban, the same word that Bible believers use of repentance from all kind of sin, including homosexuality. It suggests their ultimate goal.

UK Prime Minister Boris Johnson wrote letters to concerned Christian organizations, attempting to assure them that the law would not be applied to pastoral efforts and that it would be limited to minors. Given the history of the homosexual juggernaut, an inch once given never satisfies, and the machine does not seem to have a reverse gear.

While the law is supposed to be based on “science,” pro-ban researchers made no effort to consider the hundreds of “ex-gay” people who have been rescued by “conversion,” both spiritually and psychologically.

Critics also pointed out that advocacy was usually a one-way street: Christians would be punished for promoting God’s viewpoint on homosexuality while LGBTQ+ networks advocating for transgenderism or gender fluidity would not be hindered.

in Genesis and God’s condemnations of their sin in Leviticus. Can we avoid God’s wrath if we ignore this pattern as we become wealthy and haughty, legitimizing and legalizing this abomination?

Some modern ministers and Christian leaders have told their flocks they should not read Romans 1-5 for at least five years. Why? Because chapter 1 is too clear for them:

“For this cause God gave them up unto vile affections: for even their women did change the natural use into that which is against nature: And likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust one

However, it is not all bad. In three of the U.S. states that passed the ban, lawsuits succeeded in lifting it. Florida, Georgia and Alabama had their ban lifted by the 11th Circuit of Appeals Court in 2020.

God’s word is very clear on His original plan for human sexuality. When we removed the Bible from the schoolroom, the culture surrounding our youngsters changed. The philosophy that they breathe now teaches that we are all here by some cosmic accident on our way to nothingness. Sensual pleasure is the only purpose in life: just eat, drink, and be merry, for tomorrow we expire.

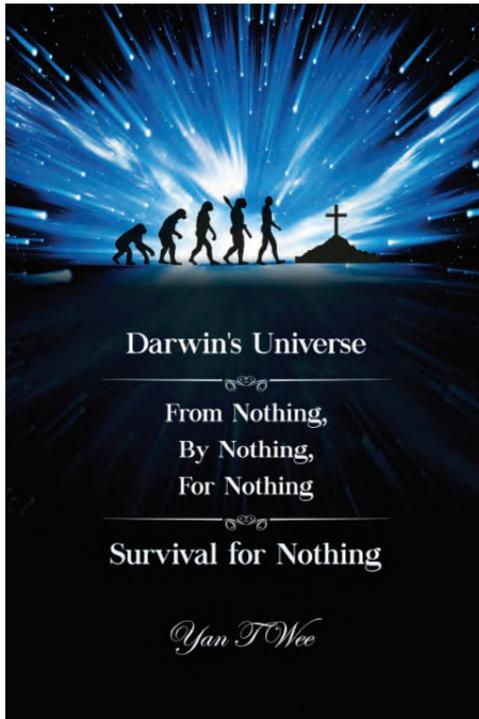

In Mark 16:15 we are told to go teach all nations. What do we teach them? That God’s way is always better. And nothing can communicate this as well as the words of God Himself. That is why the engaging stories in Chick tracts are liberally laced with God’s words. That is how people come to know that God has the power to change their lives.

toward another; men with men working that which is unseemly, and receiving in themselves that recompence of their error which was meet”(Romans 1:26-27).

Homosexual activists choose to ignore this scripture because it is far too specific to be misinterpreted. It covers perverse affections when we let our emotions get away from our control. It covers the unnatural behavior of both women and men. It covers the perversion of men having intimate relations with other men. And it covers the payoff (recompence) in damaged bodies, disease, and early death.

See Abomination p. 6

“Get your own dirt!”

You may have heard the story about the scientist who claimed he could take dirt and make a man. God's response: "Not so fast ... get your own dirt."

Author Yan Wee, pastor of Shalom Baptist Church in Singapore, holds evolutionists feet to the fire. He writes: "Despite all the latest discoveries in every discipline of science, all the cosmologists, physicists and biologists will inevitably converge at the edge of a vast cosmic chasm they cannot cross - where did the first dirt come from?"

Who made the precise laws of nature?

Why does everything appear carefully designed to support intelligent life?

Read statements from many scientists who agree: "evolution makes no sense!"

ABOMINATION From p. 4

Mark 10:6-8: “But from the beginning of the creation God made them male and female. For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and cleave to his wife; And they twain shall be one flesh....”

We cannot avoid the fact that God hates going against His created order of a man and a woman joining together and making a family. To Him, anything else is an abomination! God’s disgust with it boiled over into fiery judgment in the well-watered plain near Abraham’s camp. In dismay, Abraham watched the smoke rising with the intensity of a furnace (Genesis 19).

For anyone who wishes to honestly consult God’s opinion on the practice of homosexuality, these scriptures, including the story of Sodom and Gomorrah, leave very little doubt. And does anyone else’s opinion even matter?

Soul winners, Christ commissioned us to let the world know His plan for a blessed life, here and hereafter. For five decades, thousands of people have been drawn closer to God’s plan by reading His words in a Chick gospel tract. The testimony files at Chick Publications are ample proof.

This lost world desperately needs those words.

PARENTS WAKING UP —FIGHTING FOR THEIR KIDS

Hopefully, some Mama bears (and Papa bears) are beginning to wake up to the dangers of the government school systems. In Loudon County Virginia, parents and school administrators have been locked in a tussle over pornographic books in the library, Marxist curriculum in the classroom, and whether a “biological” boy in a skirt should be allowed to create hanky panky in the girl’s restroom.

Some of the honest media coverage of their struggles appears to have awakened other parents and even some teachers and administrators. In Wyoming, parents discovered books used in grooming children for early sexual activity in the Campbell County library. Some even included instructions for homosexual perversion. When parents complained to the library board and the County Commission, no action was taken. They then took five of the books to the Campbell County Sheriff’s Office and filed a criminal complaint.

It turns out that Wyoming is one of several states where schools and libraries are exempt from prosecution for displaying obscene materials. But anyone who is convicted of encouraging children to engage in sexual relations is subject to a felony charge and five years in prison. The parents used this statute to file a complaint against the library board. The county prosecutor, a parent himself, reviewed the books, declared them “hard pornography to children” and arranged for a special prosecutor.

In September, parents in Hudson, Ohio, discovered the contents of a writing course that was being taught to college prep students in the high school senior class. The course included a book called “642 things to write about.” It contained prompts such as “Write a sex scene you wouldn’t show your mom,” and “The first time you had sex.” Death, suicide, and murder were other topics.

CHICK MAIL BAG

“I am a 13-year-old girl who has never handed out any kind of gospel tract until recently. My family and I are all followers of the Lord Jesus, but we haven’t witnessed, nor made any efforts to reach out to people in this way... that is, until we found and read your Chick Tracts.

“After reading some of the books you sell, such as “*One Thing You Can’t Do In Heaven*,” by Mark Cahill, and studying for myself in God’s Word, the Lord has revealed to me what my ultimate passion should be: witnessing and spreading the Gospel which Jesus commanded us to preach! I am trying to reach as many people as I can now, and I feel like I have finally awakened!

“I LOVE handing out Chick Tracts to people. I usually say “Would you like a little comic book to read?” My family doesn’t go out a whole lot, maybe several times weekly. Most of the time we’re at home. Where we hand out tracts is anywhere we can! At the grocery store we hand them to customers, cashiers and bag-boys. My dad leaves them around the airports when he travels!

“I recently had the wonderful opportunity to hand out lots of Chick Tracts at a local arts and crafts festival which attracted thousands of people. I sincerely found it a joy to stand on the side of the walkway and give people your tracts. It was wonderful.

“I have gone from being a wall-flower to becoming a Warrior! Now I am confident and eager to share the Word!

I really do believe that “Chick tracts get read.” Lots of people like comics!

“My mom has ‘subscribed’ several unsaved relatives to the “Chick Tract Club”, where she has been sending them a Chick Tract monthly.

“I have enjoyed introducing several saved relatives to your tracts, as well. My cousin had never done any witnessing before, so one evening we went out on the beach (with our families) and my brother and I got her started!

“I really believe that God is working through you.

“I hope you continue making more tracts! I will keep using them!”

-Leah O., FL

“My very first exposure to the Gospel at fourteen years old, now over forty years ago, was Mr. Chick’s tract: ‘*This Was Your Life*.’ That tract led me directly to an altar and to the eternal life our Lord so freely offers.

“And that tract is why I’m now looking for that city whose builder and maker is God, as well as why I’m now actively engaged in street evangelism. And I sprinkle that tract, along with a few others, all over my hometown like so many mustard seeds.

“That’s the least I can do for the One who died for me. So, thank y’all so very much from the bottom of this grateful ole sinner’s heart.”

PARENTS From p. 6

When parents complained to the school board, they showed no interest in dealing with it. Parents then approached Hudson Mayor Craig Schubert, who showed the material to a local judge, who declared it essentially child pornography. Craig then confronted the school board with two choices: resign because of their failure to prevent such a class, or face potential charges of child pornography.

This created a firestorm which resulted in 1200 pages of email messages to the city and school district. Schubert continued to stand his ground even against the county prosecutor who said that the material did not qualify for prosecution but was an attempt to create a “public battle over censorship.”

Even more recently, a school administrator in the Indianapolis public schools has been suspended from access to email and Google Drive related to his duties. He is also denied access to any school building in the system. His offense was the release of a video from a public server in the school system that he believed demonstrated racist teachings of Critical Race

Theory by an “equity administrator.”

He believed that he was trying to show that such teachings are part of a government curriculum designed to create tension between the races in America. Many Christian leaders have pointed out that this teaching is based on a Marxist strategy designed to do away with America’s constitutional government.

These are all major battles in Satan’s war against Christ’s church and God’s words. Many parents do not know exactly why these teachings are wrong. Only those who know their Bible understand God’s plan for sex within the boundaries of the marriage vows between a man and a woman. They also know from the Apostle Paul’s teachings that all races are of one blood, all guilty before God, all in need of the redemption that is available through the work of the cross. Once forgiven, all are brothers and sisters in Christ’s Kingdom.

These truths are desperately needed in America’s battle for the souls of our children.

Soul winners, we have work to do!

THE FINGERPRINTS OF A FAKE by David W. Daniels

When we look at ancient scrolls of the Jewish people, it is amazing how well-preserved they are. For one, they carefully wrap the scrolls when they are of the scriptures, and keep them with reverence in a cabinet or other storage unit. But there is another thing that anyone can see: they have an amazing lack of fingerprints!

Fingers have all sorts of oils. And even clean fingers have oils on them. Over time they discolor and degrade what they touch. So scrolls and books age when people touch the words or the edges.

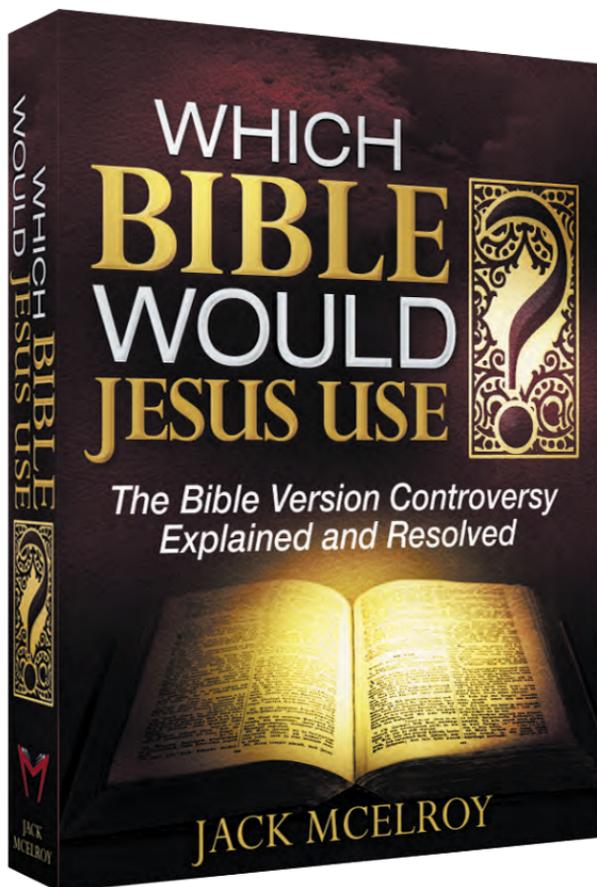

But not with Jewish scripture scrolls! They use a pointer that tapers to the form of a closed hand with a finger sticking out, called a yad. That’s how they point to the words that they speak. And they don’t turn pages. The scroll has handles that turn without ever touching the animal skin writing surface.

Gentiles have used books instead of scrolls almost as far back as we can tell. And their pages have the tell-tale signs of aging. We can see where the fingers grabbed the page. And some people even licked their fingers before they turned a page! So all that touching is a testimony to the age of the book.

But not Codex Sinaiticus. Its pages are fresh and clean. And yet, it is claimed that it was penned about 350 AD! Isn’t

MISSIONS FUND REPORT

OVER 35 MILLION CHICK TRACTS SENT TO MISSIONARIES!

It would never have happened if you did not have a heart for missions. One shipment at a time, one project at a time, grateful missionaries have received over 35 million Chick tracts to multiply their outreach. They gave up their homes to go, and you gave to equip them with tools to help make it count!

MEXICO

Missionary Mike Wallace says thank you! He wrote: “Chick tracts get read! We live on the edge of the Mexico City and we are so very grateful for Chick tracts. When we pass out Chick tracts, people take them, read them and we have numerous testimonies of people getting saved by reading them. Sometimes I will sit down with someone after I see they have finished reading the tract and with their hearts well prepared by the gospel, I can more easily lead them to Christ. We can easily give out 1,000 tracts in about one hour in our immediate area.” Mike went on to say that “we often see souls saved from people reading them.”

Missionary Todd Eklund just shared by telephone how his group of churches in Mexico City have mobilized to bring Jesus to the streets of this massive metropolis. You gave them 200,000 Chick tracts. Just after Halloween, when everyone was celebrating the pagan “Dia de los Muertos” (Day of the Dead) these believers (with Eklund cheerleading) were on the streets with Chick tracts, turning it into the Day of the Light! Many of you do the same here in the U.S. Now, they are using the remainder of the tracts in a big Christmas outreach.

PHILIPPINES

In the midst of the severe lockdown in the Philippines because of COVID-19, Missionary Joshua Yun wrote: “As the quarantine continues, people are more dependent on government support. Many times they are waiting in a long line just to get some ‘Ayuda’ (governmental support). Chick tracts are amazingly effective, especially in the situation. Most of them waiting in line gladly accepted tracts and read them thoroughly. Thank God for Chick Tracts!!

Here, Pastor Argabio, who is supplied through Missionary Mike Carey, shares the Scriptures with three youths in the Philippines. The cartoon tracts really create witnessing opportunities!

As you receive this report, more than 500,000 Chick tracts are on the way to the Philippines. We have never seen nearly 5 million Chick tracts put into the hands of Filipinos. And he leads by example, prowling the streets and parks to find people that don't yet know Jesus.

HONDURAS

Missionary Daniel La Vita writes: "We received our tract orders from Chick tracts and have been busy giving them out. It still is a blessing that people will still accept them even with the plague continuing to spread. We covered all downtown the last two weeks and although it is not the safest place to be, we found many souls willing to at least read about the salvation of their souls. At this point, nothing else really matters as much as getting right with God before it is too late."

VENEZUELA

Missionary Jerry Alford writes: "The Lord has helped us to start over 20 churches and a radio station using your CHICK TRACTS as my basic tool."

ZAMBIA

"I was a missionary kid in Zambia my whole childhood and I knew so many people who came to know the Lord because of these tracts! The pictures made the tracts easier to understand for the many Zambians who couldn't read."

—Andrea S.

ISRAEL

We are now preparing nearly one ton of Chick tracts that will go to Israel. Just as in the time of Jesus, there are still Jewish people who are absolutely opposed to the Gospel. They hold tightly to their Jewish law and traditions, and cannot see that their precious Messiah has already come.

An Australian missionary, who we will not name because of persecution, accepts this opposition and boldly passes out Chick tracts in Israel. Remember, it was through these people that God chose to reveal Himself to the world, and He requires us to pray for them and try to reach them for Jesus.

The current project involves seven titles. Four of them are strictly Hebrew titles:

Hebrew - Creator or Liar?

Hebrew - The Promise

Hebrew - Room 310

Hebrew - This Was Your Life

See Missions Report p. 14

Does she stand a chance?

If someone gave her a gospel tract, she does.

Anyone who has read a gospel tract knows what to do at death's door. They need only a moment to cry out "God forgive me!" They'll know Jesus died for their sins and they only need to believe on Him.

But what if they have never read the gospel? What if they don't know what to do? Then they have no chance at all.

Give someone a chance today. If they have read a Chick tract, then their time comes, they will know what to do.

Chick tracts get READ!

MISSIONS REPORT From p.12

But three other titles will soon be ready to take advantage of a special need in Israel.

Jewish people moving to Israel face a new challenge - Hebrew. They may have had some Hebrew training in synagogue school wherever they came from, but now they must become fluent in the national language of their new home.

Many speak, in addition to their mother tongue, the world's common business language —English! So this missionary will be passing out Chick tracts that are twice the size of an ordinary Chick tract. They will be two tracts in one: Hebrew on the top, and the same story in English on the bottom. These tracts will help them learn Hebrew at the same time that they are learning about their Messiah!

PAPUA NEW GUINEA

The shipment of over one million Chick tracts is on its way! At the time of this writing, the ship had passed through Singapore port and was due to arrive the Port of Lae before you read this. It's getting close!

GUYANA

Missionary Noel Shrivnauth in Guyana requested 40,000 tracts for a big Christmas outreach. As this report was being prepared (before Christmas), he wrote: "December has started and we are in the middle of our Christmas tract blitz. In the that amazing? No, it isn't amazing, and Sinaiticus isn't that old. It only dates to about 1839-41, with corrections through 1843, pages removed until 1844 and other things written in (including Arabic) until 1859. I show the evidence for this in *Who Faked the World's Oldest Bible?*

Sometimes the simplest things we notice teach us the biggest lessons. Sinaiticus is not ancient. And the biggest weeks leading up to Christmas Day we are anticipating giving out 40,000 Christmas tracts. By the way it is going, it looks like we will surpass the goal. Praise God!

To help with the giving out of the tracts, we have divided those willing to be involved into teams of eight. Each team has a team leader. Names have been chosen for the teams, such as the Vision, the Winners, the Preachers, Redeemers, Christ's Ambassadors and Young Disciples. Everyone is excited about this event. You can see them passing out tracts most any place there is a crowd. Open-air markets, busy traffic areas, shopping areas (many are out Christmas shopping), barber shops, parking lots of grocery stores, and ball fields are some places where the Christmas paper missionaries are being distributed... People read Chick Tracts almost immediately after getting them. Pray with us that God will use the seeds being sown in the hearts of people."

NEW PROJECTS COMING UP...

Mexico: 160,000 tracts for a huge "Holy Week" outreach in Puerto Penasco

Mexico: 70,000 tracts for Chiapas

Peru: 30,000 tracts to go with startup of 2 new gospel radio stations

Malawi: 50,000 tracts for Missionary David Robinson

Thank you for making it possible!

"fingerprint" of that is the fact that it has no wear from fingerprints!

Praise God, we don't need to sell our birthright —the faith-building King James— for the doubt-bringing mess of pottage Bibles that were created from Sinaiticus. Sinaiticus has the fingerprints of a fake.

But our King James Bible bears the fingerprint of God.

Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

It's been a strange year.

People are mysteriously dropping dead or into comas, having sudden blood clots and other serious issues, even right in the middle of their daily activities. Sports players are falling down and dying during game time. This kind of thing has happened in centuries past, and even occasionally in modern times, but nothing like what we are seeing now.

This is the prime time to ask people that all-important question: Do you know where you are going when you die? Eternity is just a heartbeat away —literally. Thousands are finding out. On average, 60 million people die each year. That's more than the population of California and New York combined. And that's normal. But now, people are dying at unexpected times.

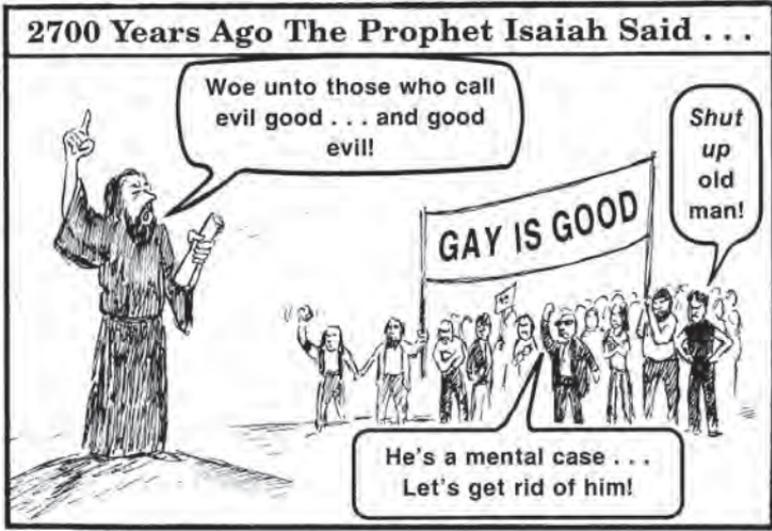

It's a lie that we have "all the time in the world." We don't. We cannot even be guaranteed tomorrow. But we can be sure about what happens after we die. There are only two destinations: heaven and hell.

And that's why it is so important to get a clear gospel tract into their hands that they will read. In it is their chance for forgiveness, peace with God and an eternal destination of joy. But they must know the way!

"...how shall they hear without a preacher?" (Romans 10:14). But we can tell them with a Chick tract. Then they'll have that chance for eternal life clearly before them. It's worth a moment of our time, and in eternity —many will thank us.

In Christ Jesus, and for His service,
